FOOD VENDOR PERMIT APPLICATION

FEE ATTACHED $ _____

(see current fee schedule)

INSTRUCTIONS:

- A pre-application meeting with city staff is required. Date of pre-app meeting: _____
- Completed application, including a written statement addressing each of the criteria described below and application fee.
- A 'to scale' site plan, showing cart location and dimensions to property line.
- Photos or drawings of cart/trailer, with overall dimensions of cart and any attached signs.
- Food vendor permits are available for either 30-day or 12-month periods, no more than six consecutive hours per day. Vendors who do not meet conditions of approval will be revoked or not renewed. Permits are not issued until notification of neighboring property owners and a legal ad in the newspaper, subject to a 14-day comment period. Vendors are required to provide a certified nearby property owner list (150') from Flathead County GIS with their application. Renewals do not require notification of neighboring properties or a legal ad, but may be subject to additional conditions of approval.
- A valid complaint that the vendor is not meeting one of the required conditions of approval may result in revoking or denial of permit renewal. Appeals of a permit denial can be made through the Planning Department to the City Council for a fee, and a public hearing will be scheduled at their next available meeting.
